

8 Charming Places to Wine, Dine & Stay

Looking for a restaurant serving the finest cuisine, a café/bar for lunch with friends, or a hotel/B&B for a relaxing break? Enjoy great atmospheres, warm and friendly hospitality and the finest cuisine within our individual yet unique establishments throughout the UK.

1 Elvey Farm Pluckley, Kent

An elegant Kentish farmhouse set in the heart of 'Darling Buds of May' countryside. Awarded Guest House of the Year 2011 by Les Routiers, the superb accommodation is stylish yet modern - why not try a stay in an Oast House or a suite with hot tub? Sample the delights of local cuisine in a 16th century, candlelit restaurant or wander around Pluckley... the most haunted village in England, says the Guinness Book of Records!

www.elveyfarm.co.uk / Tel: 01233840442 / Email: bookings@elveyfarm.co.uk

5 The Eastern Eye Bath, Somerset

You would be wise not to miss this true Indian experience in Georgian splendour. Awarded Restaurant of the Year 2011 by Les Routiers, we would highly recommend a visit. How could you not enjoy dining under the majestic three domes and elegant open plan interior?

Revel in the spicy specialities from northern India and delicious Bengali dishes - the Taj Mahal of Indian cuisine.

www.easterneye.com / Tel: 01225 422323 / Email: info@easterneye.com

2 The Copper Horse Scarborough, Yorkshire

Immerse yourself in the world of theatre at this renowned, award-winning restaurant. Enjoy the fresh, locally-produced cuisine, from homemade pâtés and pies to sauces and salmon, while appreciating the unique theatre memorabilia of stage and screen that adorn the walls and ceilings - a truly unforgettable dining experience that you will want to repeat.

www.thecopperhorse.co.uk / Tel: 01723 862029 / Email: info@thecopperhorse.co.uk

6 Mitchells Wine Bar Tattenhall, Cheshire

If you're looking for a wine bar that offers unparalleled service, Mediterranean cuisine and a great selection of wines and local cask ales, then this is the place to be. Family-run and awarded Wine Bar of the Year 2011 by Les Routiers, enjoy the relaxed atmosphere in front of an open fire in the winter, or 'al fresco' dining on the lawn in the summer. Why not join in on a themed evening or one of their regular events?

www.mitchellswinebar.co.uk / Tel: 01829 771477 / Email: information@mitchellswinebar.co.uk

3 The Beckford Inn & Hotel Beckford, Gloucestershire

Sample the delights of the Cotswolds or have a flutter on a horse at Cheltenham Racecourse while staying at this superb 18th century inn. Awarded Country Retreat of the Year 2011 by Les Routiers, any guest will enjoy the luxury accommodation, roaring open fires (in winter only), traditional real ales and the exquisite cuisine - the Vale of Evesham's finest English asparagus and locally-raised Hereford beef, West Country lobster and Artisan cheeses.

www.thebeckford.com / Tel: 01386 881532 / Email: enquiries@thebeckford.com

7 Wheelers Oyster Bar Whitstable, Kent

For over 150 years, oysters have been served at Wheelers Oyster Bar, winners of numerous awards and their own award-winning recipe book! A simple, traditional atmosphere greets the diner who can be sure that they will be served the freshest locally-sourced produce, all prepared in-house - you won't be disappointed!

www.seewhitstable.com/Wheelers-Whitstable-Restaurant.html / Tel: 01227 273311

4 Harry's Lounge Bar Whitby, North Yorkshire

Nestled on the harbour-side of this picturesque English village, this fashionable, vibrant bar is the place to sit, relax and watch the world go by. Sample a cocktail expertly created; enjoy the fresh aroma of an espresso; taste the brassiere's daily catch of fresh seafood prepared in-house; and if you can't drag yourself away? Stay in one of the well-appointed luxury rooms or the suite.

www.harrysloungebar.co.uk / Tel: 01947 601909 / Email: info@harrysloungebar.co.uk

8 Old Queens Head Penn, Buckinghamshire

Dating back to 1666, any visitor will be enthralled by the charm and character of the Old Queens Head - the rambling bars and flagstone floors, old oak furnishings and stylish dining areas, and the warm, welcoming atmosphere. With a wide variety of traditional British cuisine, from pigeon breast to haddock wrapped in pancetta, and classic wines from Italy, Spain, France and Germany, you will enjoy a true dining experience.

www.oldqueenshead.co.uk / Tel: 01494 813371 / Email: info@oldqueenshead.co.uk

For more information on the above establishments and to view many more places to wine, dine and stay throughout the UK and Ireland, visit the Les Routiers website at www.lesroutiers.co.uk or call us on 0845 050 1189. We expect the best so that you receive the best.